

Summer Camp Counselor-in-Training Overview and Application

Counselor-in-Training Description:

Counselors-in-Training (CITs) assist the camp counselors in providing a safe and fun camp experience at Tanglewood. They will help lead environmental education activities, games, crafts, songs, stories, hikes, and more. In addition to supervising campers during the camp activities listed above, our CITs will also assist with camp preparation, check-in and check-out, and will serve as a positive role model for children in camp. CITs will send their applications to the CIT Coordinator, who will review them with the Camp Director. The CIT Coordinator is the direct supervisor of the CITs and they should report all concerns to the Coordinator. CITs will remain under the supervision of the camp counselors for most of the camp day, but will have a dedicated weekly meeting with the CIT Coordinator to discuss topics such as: environmental education, leadership strategies, emergency protocols, child development and psychology, camp games and crafts, current conservation issues, and more.
